Dear Chairman Martinez,

I have known Professor Donovan for over a decade. As an Rear Admiral in the U.S. Navy, I attended his executive seminar at Cambridge Technology Group. Following the seminar, John and I worked together for several years to develop global applications for DOD, including the Five-Vector model for guiding sailors in their careers, which was fielded globally.

John led many successful executive programs and workshops for Oracle customers. John's methodology for workshops is outstanding and has proven most helpful to IT transformation successes for those that attended his seminars.

John is an outstanding innovator and visionary with the ability to give executives the courage to transform with a sense of urgency.

Sincerely,

Bud Langston
